

Japanese Instructor Comment Sheet

(To be completed by a Japanese language instructor)

Japan Studies Program, Tokyo International University

Student name: _____

The student above has been accepted into the Japan Studies Program at Tokyo International University. As the student's most recent Japanese language instructor, please provide us with information regarding the student's proficiency in Japanese. This will help us to place him/her appropriately, and ensure a pleasant and instructive stay in Japan. Please write in either Japanese or English. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

1. How long and what capacity have you known the student?

2. What course(s) have you taught and/or are you teaching the student?

3. What textbooks (and up to what lesson) will the student have completed before beginning the Japan Studies Program including KANJI textbooks?

4. Please evaluate the student, in comparison with other students you have taught at the same level, in the following Japanese abilities. (Check the appropriate categories)

	Outstanding	Good	Average	Below Average	Poor	No Basis for Judgment
Reading
Writing
Speaking
Listening

5. Please indicate the approximate number of KANJI the student . . .

- can READ _____
- can WRITE _____

6. Please comment on any special strengths or weaknesses in the student's language preparation and/or language learning ability:

Instructor Name (in print) _____

Signature _____ Date / /

Title or Position _____

Institution _____

Address _____

Email address _____